Bureau of Engraving and Printing's
2002 Souvenir Card and Intaglio Print
Subscription Service Features
Front and Back Treasury Notes

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP) participates in various numismatic and philatelic shows throughout the year. BEP creates souvenir cards to commemorate the majority of the shows it attends. These souvenir cards provide the general public with the opportunity to collect engravings of historic currency notes and stamps.

BEP is pleased to announce the 2002 souvenir card subscription services for mint, post office canceled souvenir cards and two intaglio prints. A post office cancelled (POC) souvenir card is a card that has been stamped and hand cancelled by the United States Postal Service (USPS). USPS uses the BEP Visitor's Center cancellation containing the date of the card's first day of sale. This year's cards will represent front and back treasury notes.

The 2002 souvenir cards are truly a very limited edition. Last year the, BEP offered 4,300 mint and 2,700 POC cards. For the 2002 souvenir card program, BEP will only offer 3,950 mint cards and 1,150 POC cards.

We guarantee that subscribers will receive every souvenir card included in the mint and/or post office cancelled subscription, if they order by December 31, 2001. BEP will mail each souvenir card and intaglio print after its first day of sale. A schedule is listed on the next page.

Anyone who wishes to participate in the 2002 subscription services should complete the enclosed order form and return it with your payment. Orders may also be placed by phone, fax, or internet (see attached order form). BEP will release announcements on individual cards throughout the year.

Souvenir Card featuring $1 Treasury Note
Offered at Florida United Numismatists Show

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP) will exhibit at the Florida United Numismatists (FUN) 47th Show, January 10-13, 2002, at the Orange County Convention/Civic Center, 9800 International Drive in Orlando, Florida.

THE FUN SOUVENIR CARD

The face of this $1 Treasury note features a large central vignette of a bald eagle spreading its wings before the United States Capitol. The note also bears a small "coupon size" portrait of Abraham Lincoln and Ulysses S. Grant both engraved by G. F. C. Smillie.

The $1 Silver Certificate was engraved in February 1898 to be designated Series of 1899. Engravers George U. Rose, Jr., Robert Ponickau, G.F.C. Smillie, and Frederick W. Montgomery worked on Miscellaneous Die 4485, which was hardened on December 1, 1898.

In March of the following year those same engravers began to create a $1 Treasury Note, Series 1899, designated as Miscellaneous Die 4838 using the same design as the $1 Silver Certificate and based on a transfer from Miscellaneous Die 4485 for reasons unknown.

Beginning in June 1899, engravers George U. Rose, Jr., Robert Ponickau, G.F.C. Smillie, and Frederick W. Montgomery worked on Miscellaneous Die 4838, before abandoning it in September, leaving it unfinished and unhardened. The $1 Silver Certificate, Series of 1899 was never issued. Following the passage of the Act of March 14, 1900, Treasury Notes were retired as they were received at the Treasury, rather than reissued or replaced.

THE FUN INTAGLIO PRINT

The Intaglio Print will feature Two Percent Consols of 1930 issued in 1900 to consolidate previously issued bonds. The Two Percent Consols of 1930 were payable 30 years after the date of issue with both the principal and the interest to be paid in gold coin.

Miscellaneous Die 5218, is listed on the die card as the "Center Section of \$500 Coupon Bond Back". The vignette, a $\frac{3}{4}$ view of the United States Capitol, was engraved in 1892 by William Adolph. Seen from the Senate side of this vignette was initially done for an admission card to the Senate reserved gallery. Although the image shows the exterior of the Senate, it was also used for admission cards to the House of Representatives. The ornamental border in the upper left corner was engraved in 1898 by Marcus W. Baldwin. Frank Lamasure, George U. Rose, Jr., Robert H. Warren, and William F. Wall were the letter and script engravers. Marcus W. Baldwin and Robert Ponickau were the picture engravers.

EXHIBITS

The Bureau will feature more than a billion dollars of antique currency, Treasury bonds and gold and silver certificates. A technical expert on currency production will be available to answer questions and spider press demonstrations will take place at this show. Uncut sheets of currency and other premium products will be available for purchase.

PURCHASING INSTRUCTIONS

A mail order form for the FUN Souvenir card is included. The cards, #22201 mint and #22202 post office cancelled, and the intaglio print #42901 are included in the standard subscription orders. You may order either mint, cancelled, or intaglio cards two weeks before the first day of sale. The cards may be purchased at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing's Visitors Center in Washington, D.C., starting January 10. Mint cards are available at the exhibit site. Over-the counter prices are $5.00 for mint cards. The post office cancelled cards are $5.35. The intaglio print cards are $20.00.
